We have become aware of an anomaly in the 2023 rules for the Open Class RCX1. 6.3.4.7 The third optional manoeuvre has been removed. The two remaining optional manoeuvres are stated as having a K factor of 10. This should have been adjusted to K15 and will be K15 on the day.

HP 0400

I have eviscerated my electric powered 0400 ready for the free flight with r/c assist conversion. I do hope I can get it all back inside with all the extra bits and bobs. Details will follow in Aeromodeller once I get it sorted.

Here is a whimsy for the mathematicians amongst you.

I asked my cat what two minus two equalled.

She said nothing.
